More than Green

What if your home produced more energy than it consumed? What if solar homes were the most attractive on the market? What if being green made your life easier?

Thursday, February 12th, 2009

Team North invites you to join us for a cocktail reception and fundraising event featuring a keynote address from Richard King, Director of The Solar Decathlon.

Please rsvp to: events@team-north.org

There is limited space at the event so be sure to RSVP early.

Become an active partner in finding solutions to today's most pressing energy needs by supporting the largest advanced building design project in Canadian University history.
